

Louisiana Couple Arrested for Posting Porn Videos Taken at Public Library

Summary: A married couple from Louisiana took explicit videos of themselves at several public places, including a public library and then posted them on Pornhub.

“Stay classy, Louisiana.” The southern state doesn’t always get the best reputation because of the Mardi Gras parties and actions of couples like Elizabeth and Rex Jernigan.

The married couple was found to have recorded their sexual activities at public places like a library, Walmart, and Burger King. They are now facing obscenity charges for doing this and then uploading the videos to Pornhub.

The police received a “report of lewd activity that occurred within a public library” in Houna, a town southwest of New Orleans. The investigators determined that the suspects “recorded themselves performing sexual activities on each other and uploaded them to a porn site.” Further analysis identified the suspects as 33-year-old Elizabeth and her 35-year-old husband.

The couple’s personal Pornhub page contains over 160 explicit videos. The Jernigan’s have apparently recorded themselves engaging in sexual activities at “various other businesses throughout the City of Houna and Terrebonne Parish.” The videos show her exposing herself and masturbating at several businesses at the Southland Mall as well as a nearby Walmart and Burger King. The public library video has similar explicit shots but ends with her performing oral sex on her husband in front of a periodicals rack.

They have each been charged with six counts of obscenity. Rex shared the news of the charges on their Pornhub page after posting bail. He wrote, “To all my friends and followers, the wife and I just recently bailed out of jail for our public videos we posted on pornhub, hopefully soon we’ll get to post a new video soon.” He uses the screen name “Sexybest82” while she goes by “LaylaDevine.”

Their page has 4,187 subscribers and their videos have been viewed over 1.7 million times. Rex notes on the “About” section of their page that “I’ve always loved to be nude and show off my body since I was a teenager. I hope everyone enjoys our videos...the more attention we receive, the more we’ll post.”
