

Bar Exam Status by State - Live Updates

The following table published by the National Conference of Bar Examiners shows the current status of the July 2020 bar exam in each jurisdiction.

JD Journal will monitor the information closely and will be updating this table daily, as more news is announced.

Read more updates about bar exam delays.

STATE	BAR EXAM DATE	ADDITIONAL INFO
Alabama	July 28-29
Alaska	September 9-10
Arizona	July 28-29
Arkansas	July (28-29)	If the exam cannot be administered in July, it will be rescheduled for September
California	September 9-10
Colorado	July 28-29	If the exam is postponed, it will be held on September 30-October 1. In the event the July exam must be postponed, the Court may certify recent law graduates to practice under an emergency limited license rule .
Connecticut	September 30-October 1	The announcements and related updates can be found on the Committee's web page .
Delaware	July 28-29 Rescheduled to September 9-11	(The exam in Delaware is administered over 2.5 days.)
District of Columbia	September 9-10	Due to limited seating , registration for priority registrants for the exam will be held May 18-28; if seating remains available after the priority-registration period, the Court will announce the opening of a non-priority registration period.
Florida	July 28-29
Georgia	September 9-10	Adoption/expansion of supervised/provisional practice rule until bar exam can be taken or bar exam results are announced
Guam	September 9-10
Hawaii	September 9-10
Idaho	July 28-29
Illinois	September 9-10
Indiana	one-day remotely administered exam on July 28
Iowa	to administer to the exam in July	If the exam cannot be administered as scheduled, the Board intends to administer the exam on September 9-10.
Kansas	July 28-29	will offer an additional administration of the exam on September 9-10 if needed, in addition to the July administration.
Kentucky	To administer the exam in July.	Will administer the exam in July as well as offer an additional administration of the exam on September 30-October 1.
Louisiana	The Committee will administer a 1-day bar examination on two dates, July 27	Possible seating capacity limits to ensure compliance with public health guidelines and sets

	and October 10.	forth a priority schedule.
Maine	September 30-October 1	The Board announced the availability of a limited number of additional seats and a three-tiered application period for those not already on the seating list.
Maryland	September 9-10.	Maryland's uniform bar examination has been rescheduled for Sep. 9-10
Massachusetts	September 30-October 1	If the Uniform Bar Exam cannot be conducted safely in person on September 30-October 1, an alternative exam will be administered remotely.
Michigan	July 28	One-day online exam will be administered consisting solely of the essay portion of the traditional exam.
Minnesota	Planning to administer the exam in July	Will administer the exam in July and on September 9-10
Mississippi	July 28-29
Missouri	The exam is still proceeding as scheduled in July.	In the event the exam cannot be administered in July, it will be held on September 9-10.
Montana	July 28-29
Nebraska	Will be administered in July along with an additional administration on September 9-10.
Nevada	July 28 and 29	Exam to be conducted remotely. It will be taken open book - 8 one-hour essays and a performance test.
New Hampshire	September 9-10
New Jersey	September 9-10
New Mexico	July exam postponed, date to be announced	planning for a possible temporary, limited supervised practice program for applicants awaiting an opportunity to take the bar exam, only if the exam cannot be administered in 2020.
New York	September 9-10	The Board of Law Examiners subsequently made the following announcements on its website
North Carolina	intends to administer the exam in July	If the exam cannot be administered as scheduled, it will administer the exam on September 9-10
North Dakota	planning to administer the exam on July 28-29.	If the exam cannot be administered in July, it will administer the exam on September 9-10.
Ohio	July 28-29 postponed until September 9-10	The Court has also expanded its Practice Pending Admission during the Admission to the Practice of Law Process for recent law school graduates.
Oklahoma	July 28-29
Oregon	to administer the exam on July 28-29.	If the exam cannot be administered in July, it will be administered in the fall; maximum seating capacity of 500 applicants.
Pennsylvania	September 9-10	order authorizing a limited license for July 2020 bar exam applicants.
Rhode Island	postponed indefinitely	Update to be issued soon
South Carolina	July 28-29	Updates to be issued
South Dakota	July 28	Supreme Court of South Dakota order
Tennessee	The exam will be administered in July as well as on September 30-October 1.	policy recommended by the Board establishing a protocol for seating applicants due to limited seating capacity
Texas	September 9-11 in addition to the July exam
Utah	July exam postponed, date to be announced	Diploma privilege option
Vermont	September 9-10
Virginia	July 28-29	Updates to follow
Washington	July 28-29 September 9-10	Washington has a rule allowing law school graduates to practice law for up to 18 months under the supervision of a licensed attorney.
West Virginia	July 28-29	All attendees may be screened before entering the site. Applicants not allowed to enter if their temperature is 100.4 degrees or higher.
Wisconsin	July 28-29
Wyoming	July 28-29
Virgin Islands		Updates to follow