

Dorsey & Whitney LLP Named Notable Firm in China by Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific 2023

With its recent recognition as a "Notable Firm" in China's "Commercial and Transactions - International firms" category in the esteemed Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific 2023 edition, Dorsey & Whitney LLP once again solidifies its position as a leading international law firm. Known for its expertise in dispute resolution, Dorsey continues to deliver exceptional legal services to clients across the globe.

Benchmark Litigation, a comprehensive guide to the region's top dispute resolution firms and lawyers, conducts thorough research and interviews with litigators, dispute resolution specialists, and their clients to determine the most outstanding performers in the industry. Through this rigorous process, Dorsey emerged as a standout firm, garnering recognition for its excellence in the field.

At the helm of Dorsey's Greater China Commercial Litigation team is Ray Liu, the Head of the Beijing Office. Liu leads a team of highly skilled commercial litigators who adeptly handle complex commercial disputes, matters related to the UCC (Uniform Commercial Code), business torts, and a wide range of business conflicts. From billion-dollar disputes to cases driven by principle, Dorsey's commercial litigators possess the expertise and experience to navigate any legal challenge.

Dorsey's reputation as a sought-after firm in the multi-jurisdictional contentious space, particularly in commercial and transactions, is well-deserved. The firm is actively involved in litigation and arbitration proceedings related to corporate acquisitions, shareholder disputes, contentious insolvencies, intellectual property rights disputes, cross-border investigations, and various commercial matters concerning investments and transactions within and outside of the People's Republic of China (PRC). The Greater China Litigation team at Dorsey boasts a deep understanding of industries such as banking and financial services, biotechnology, manufacturing, TMT (Technology, Media, and Telecommunications), and technology commerce, enabling them to provide tailored legal solutions to clients in these sectors.
