

Experienced Business Transactions Attorney Richard Lieberman Joins Kutak Rock's Scottsdale Office

Kutak Rock, a leading law firm, announced the addition of seasoned business transactions attorney Richard Lieberman (Rick) to its business, securities, and corporate practice group at the Scottsdale office. With an impressive track record spanning over 38 years, Lieberman's wealth of experience brings a new dimension to the firm's legal expertise.

Paul Gerding, Jr., Managing Partner of the firm's Scottsdale regional office, expressed enthusiasm about the new addition, stating, "Rick's inclusion in our team of adept professionals adds depth and resilience to our business transactions department, opening doors to fresh clients and expanded capabilities." Gerding emphasized Lieberman's unique perspective, poised to deliver significant value to both regional and national clients.

Lieberman's legal background encompasses diverse domains within business law, including mergers and acquisitions, securities, corporate governance, and finance. Having served as in-house general counsel for a finance company listed on the New York Stock Exchange and as external counsel for various enterprises, Lieberman possesses insightful viewpoints that can benefit clients across the spectrum - from startups to multi-billion-dollar corporations, irrespective of their business stage.
