What's Inside the Report?

This indispensable guide goes beyond surface-level preparation, offering:

- Deep illustrations of what firms really want to know – for example, “When a law firm asks about your five-year goals, they’re testing whether you plan to leave. The smartest answer always reflects loyalty and a long runway.”
- Strategic advice on answering foundational questions, such as:
 - “Tell me about yourself” – here, it’s emphasized that interviewees should craft a compelling narrative specific to the firm’s context, not just recite their resume. BCG ATTORNEY SEARCH
 - “Why are you interested in our firm specifically?” – the best responses reference firm-specific work and culture—not general reputation.
- Tips on demonstrating fit, such as aligning with firm culture and communicating loyalty, even when discussing future goals. BCG ATTORNEY SEARCH
